

Exercise 6: WHAT ARE THE HOT ISSUES AND WHAT ARE NOT?

Step 3: Identifying the Elements: the themes and chapters of our constitution

	THEMES	CHAPTERS
HOT ISSUES (LITTLE CONSENSUS)
NOT HOT ISSUES (CONSENSUS)

1. Write your ten Final Themes and your ten final Chapters (or whatever number you have) on to Post-it's
2. Place your Final Themes Post-it notes into Hot issues or not hot issues
3. Place your Final Chapters Post-it notes into Hot issues or not hot issues
4. Then look at your matrix, discuss whether this matrix best reflects your thinking as a group – if yes why, if no why not.
5. Write on each Post-it whether for each theme or chapter has an element that can be (a) borrowed from our existing constitution; (b) borrowed but requires revision; (c) or invented completely from scratch.

EmpowerNZ is an initiative of the McGuinness Institute

