AccountAbility, n.d.

Standards

AccountAbility's AA1000 Series of Standards are principles-based Standards and Frameworks used by a broad spectrum of organizations – global businesses, private enterprises, governments and civil societies – to demonstrate leadership and performance in accountability, responsibility and sustainability.

For over two decades, organizations have trusted and applied AccountAbility's Standards to guide their approach to sustainability strategy, governance and operational management.

The AA1000 Series represent a simple, practical and easy to use framework for organizations to apply the Guiding Principles of AccountAbility along with robust sustainability assurance and integrated stakeholder engagement.

AA1000 Assurance Standard (AA1000AS, 2008) with 2018 Addendum

The AA1000 Assurance Standard (AA1000AS, 2008) with 2018 Addendum will support both organisational users and assurance providers in effectively applying the AA1000AS (2008) to the AA1000AP (2018), whilst working with the added Principle of Impact and further changes introduced.

Until the 1st of January 2021, organisations who have transitioned to the AA1000AP (2018) seeking assurance must be assured by AccountAbility licensed assurance providers using the AA1000AS (2008) with 2018 Addendum. Organisations who have not yet transitioned to the AA1000AP (2018) and still use the AA1000APS (2008) can continue use of the AA1000AS (2008) – available below - for assurance purposes until 2021.
