Subject: Open Ocean Finfish Aquaculture Report published

Dear Wendy

Subsequent to my email of 28 May, in which NZTE said the report you requested under the Official Information Act, A business case for Open Ocean Finfish Aquaculture, would soon be publicly available, I am emailing to inform you that the report has today been published on NZTE's website and is now available to be downloaded.

You can find it at: <https://www.nzte.govt.nz/blog/a-business-case-for-open-ocean-finish-aquaculture>

You can expect a response to part 2 of your request (salmon farming reports for the last 10 years) no later than 18 June 2020, as we finish checking archival records for completeness.

Kind regards

Chloe
