Approval status of COVID-19 treatment applications received by Medsafe

A Medsafe approval is one step in the process for accessing a COVID-19 treatment. In addition to Medsafe assessment of applications for regulatory approval, PHARMAC is working with pharmaceutical companies to negotiate supply for New Zealand patients. For more information, please see the website Ministry of Health and PHARMAC websites or see a description of the Medsafe approval process for COVID-19 treatments. More information about medicine applications and approvals can also be found using our Product/Application Search.
