

(Air New Zealand, 2021a)

25 Jan 2021

International travel options

Last updated 26 January 2021 at 8.55AM NZT

One-way 'Quarantine-free' services from New Zealand to Australia are briefly unavailable. The Australian Government has placed a 72-Hour hold on 'Quarantine-free' entry. Bookings for 'Quarantine-free' travel from the 25th - 28th January 2021 will receive contact directly of any changes to your service once further advice has been received from the Australian Government.

From 11:59 pm on Monday 25 January 2021, most passengers travelling to New Zealand must provide evidence of a negative COVID-19 test result before departure. Customers transiting through New Zealand from the United Kingdom and the United States must also meet this requirement. Learn more.

From 26 January 2021, Air New Zealand requires all passengers to wear a face-covering on international flights. Face-coverings are already required by local legislation on all New Zealand domestic flights and on flights to some international destinations.