Disclaimer: Please do not use this information for investment decisions.

Feedback: Please email suggestions to enquiries@mcguinnessinstitute.org

Infographic 4: NZKS salmon farms

See Table 4.1: NZKS salmon farms – By the numbers for more detail on each farm.

This infographic forms part of the McGuinness Institute's OneOceanNZ project. For references see www.mcguinnessinstitute.org/publications/infographics Key Location Ruakaka Queen Charlotte Sound/ Tōtaranui 1985 (year established)<sup>1</sup> 2024<sup>2</sup> Pelorus Sound/Te Hoiere Internal waters Tory Channel/ Kura Te Au Waihinau Bay Cook Strait Territorial waters 1989<sup>1</sup> 2024<sup>2</sup> Current status (as at May 2023) Permitted site – active Otanerau Permitted site – fallowed<sup>3</sup> 1990<sup>1</sup> 2024<sup>2</sup> ••••• Under appeal by DOC and McGuinness Institute (subject to resolution of consent appeal) Te Pangu Proposed farms rejected 1992<sup>1</sup> 2036<sup>2</sup> Farms rejected by 2013 Board of Inquiry (BOI) Farm rejected by 2014 Supreme Court Forsyth Bay  $^{\star}$  Crail Bay includes two sites. One site is for a seaweed trial 1994<sup>1</sup> 2024<sup>2</sup> and the other is for salmon farming.<sup>4</sup> \*\* NZKS has reported that If Blue Endeavour is to progress, the three fallowed farms in the Pelorus Sound/ Te Hoiere will Clay Point Map of NZKS farms<sup>10</sup> be used as nursery sites for nine months of the year.<sup>5</sup> 20071 2036<sup>2</sup> Crail Bay\* 2024<sup>2</sup> 2011<sup>1</sup> 2011 EPA/BOI: NZKS lodges requests for two plan changes and applications for resource consents for nine farms (see 1–9 in Table 4.1)<sup>6</sup> BOI denies requests for plan changes and applications for resource consents at:7 2013 1. Kaitapeha 2. Ruaomoko 3. Kaitira 4. Taipipi 5. White Rock Horse Supreme Court grants EDS Appeal denying plan change and resource consent at:8 2014 6. Papatua Approved by BOI9 7. Ngāmāhau 2049<sup>2</sup> 2015<sup>1</sup> Approved by BOI<sup>9</sup> 8. Waitata 2049<sup>2</sup> 2016<sup>1</sup> Approved by BOI<sup>9</sup> 9. Kopāua/Richmond Salmon farm key 2. Marine zones, reserves and sanctuaries key A permitted NZKS salmon farm in operation or fallowed Coastal Marine Zone 1 (CMZ1) 2049<sup>2</sup> An existing NZKS salmon farm not in operation. NZKS purchase the two Crail Bay farms from Pacifica in order to purchase their 2016<sup>1</sup> Coastal Marine Zone 2 (CMZ2) Aquaculture activity is permitted salmon, NZKS has told the Board of Inquiry in 2012 that both farms are uneconomic and will not be operated except for Marlborough District Council. Blue Endeavour\* Coastal Marine Zone 3 (CMZ3) research in the future. A special zone that is created to allow for a non-complying activity The Marlborough District Council can grant a coastal permit if the Skretting Limited Finfish Research Facility (Permit U160029). This consent expires 26 January 2034. non-complying activity meets specific requirements set by the Council. Nov 2022 See the 2013 BOI decision Kokomahua (Long Island) Marine Reserve 1 Sep Marine Mammal Sanctuary 2023 2045