Tēnā koe Wendy

I am writing regarding your official information complaint, on behalf of McGuinness Institute Te Hononga Waka, about the Ministry of Health's decision on your request for information relating to the National Reserve Supply Technical Advisory Group.

I sincerely apologise for the delay to allocate this matter to an investigator. As a result of the high volume of complaints on hand, we have not been able to progress matters as quickly as we would like.

Given the passage of time since your complaint was made, I would be grateful if you could please update us on any developments regarding your complaint, particularly if there has been a change of circumstance that may be relevant.

Please provide your response by 24 June 2025.
